

Woods Baughman
USA

It will be a first British five-star start for American rider Woods Baughman (26), who rides his own, Kim Baughman and James Baughman's C'Est La Vie 135. Brought up near the Kentucky Horse Park Woods started riding when he was six-years-old and was a member of the Keeneland Pony Club. Apparently his first event went: 'horribly – I finished on 108 points or something!' Woods trains with Sharon White and spent time in 2018 training with Dirk Schrade – where he purchased C'Est La Vie.

C'Est La Vie 135 is a 14-year-old German-bred Hannoverian gelding, acquired by Woods at the tail end of his 10-year-old year. He is by Contendro I out of Anette by Aarking xx. According to Woods the horse has to be the center of attention at all times, and is a machine across country.
