

Susie Berry
IRL

It will be a first Burghley for Irish rider Susie Berry (26), who is based near Kettering in Northamptonshire where she runs her own yard. She completed her first five-star at Badminton this spring riding John The Bull – at Burghley she brings forward Ringwood LB.

In 2014 Susie relocated from home in Co Down to work for and train with Piggy March, before setting up on her own in 2020, just 20 minutes from her mentor.

Susie grew up surrounded by horses – national hunt mares and foals – and rode from an early age. From 2012 – 2017 she represented Ireland in six European Championships at Pony, Junior and Young Rider level, winning team gold and team bronze at Junior level. In 2019 she earned her first senior cap competing as a member of the Irish team at the CHIO in Aachen.

Ringwood LB, AKA Albie, is a 13-year-old Irish Sport Horse gelding by Iroko out of Seoidin Alainn who is by the prodigious eventing sire Master Imp. He is owned by Nick and Helen Caton.
