

Rosalind Canter
GBR

British rider Rosalind Canter (36) is the reigning World Champion and currently ranked third in the FEI World rider rankings. She lost her World Championships partner, Allstar B, when he sustained an injury at Aachen recently but she has more talent in her yard. Lordships Graffalo contested his first five-star at Badminton this year, finishing second, while Pencos Crown Jewel took fourth place at Bicton five-star last season.

Rosalind, who is based near Louth in Lincolnshire, grew up on the family farm at Hallington, where she is now based. She spent her childhood riding round the farm and was an active member of the South Wold Hunt North pony club. She studied Sport Science at Sheffield Hallam University, playing first team hockey as well as juggling horses and eventing. After graduating she went travelling before taking a summer job with Judy Bradwell that turned into four years. She enjoyed huge success in Young Event Horse championships and also represented Great Britain in the World University Equestrian Championships.

Ros set up her own yard in 2011, and was selected for her first British Nations Cup team in 2013. She made her five-star debut at Burghley in 2015, winning the 'best British first-timer' award. She made her senior team debut a gold medal winning one at the 2017 European Championships, finishing fifth individually, before taking team and individual gold at Tryon World Championships.

In 2019 she gave birth to her daughter Ziggy, and in July this year married her long-term partner Chris McAleese. She trains with Caroline Moore, Ian Woodhead and Chris Bartle.

Pencos Crown Jewel (aka Jasmine) is a British-bred SHB(GB) registered 13-year-old mare owned by Kate James and Annie Makin, who has been produced by Ros from a three-year-old. By the renowned sire Jumbo, she is out of Cornish Queen by the former advanced stallion Rock King. Jasmine stepped up to five-star at Bicton last season, finishing fourth.

Lordships Graffalo (aka Walter) is also British-bred SHB(GB) registered with similar heritage to Pencos Crown Jewel. Michelle Saul owns the 10-year-old gelding who was bred by Lordships Stud at Writtle College under the guidance of Penny Wallace. He is by Grafenstolz out of Cornish Queen by Rock King. Ros has produced Walter from a three-year-old. He made his five-star debut this spring, finishing second at Badminton – the only horse to complete on his dressage score.
