

David Doel
GBR

It will be a second Burghley for British rider David Doel (29) who is based at the family dairy farm near Lacock in Wiltshire where he runs Reybridge Eventing. In 2018 David made his 4* (now 5*) debut at Pau completing in 33rd place with Chap, and earlier this season he finished sixth (and best first-timer) at Badminton with this year's Burghley entry Galileo Nieuwmoed.

David has come through the ranks of eventing. He started competing with the Pony Club competing at the PC Championships and rode in his first BE competition in March 2007, when he was just 14. He was a member of Junior and Young Rider teams winning team gold, silver and bronze as well as an individual bronze at the Junior Europeans in 2011, and that year was selected for the World Development Programme. In 2014 he was selected for his first Nations Cup and at the end of the season was awarded the BE Goldman Cup (awarded to the rider U21 with the most BE points). He joined the senior ranks in 2015 since when he has been a member of several Nations Cup teams.

He has been supported and trained along the way by his mother Maggie Doel BHSI who evented to advanced level was a member of the British 2* team and then competed to grand prix dressage. David also trains with Adam Kemp and Nick Turner. In 2017 David married showjumper Charlotte

Galileo Nieuwmoed, owned by Gillian Jonas is an 11-year-old Dutch-bred KWPN registered gelding. He is by the Holstein 5* grand prix jumping sire Carambole out of Sjaloma, by Harcos. He was originally produced by Joy Dawes and sent to David to compete in 2018 when David's long-standing supporter Gillian Jonas stepped in.
