

Boyd Martin USA

It is a third visit to Burghley for American Olympic rider Boyd Martin (43) who is based in Unionville, Pennsylvania. In 2017, his last visit here, he completed Burghley in 10th place with Steady Eddie. This year he rides Tsetserleg TSF. He is currently ranked 7th in the FEI World ranking.

He competed in the Tokyo 2020, Rio 2016 and London 2012 Olympic Games. Boyd and his wife Silva, a Grand Prix dressage rider, originally from Germany who now rides for the USA, operate their training and competition yard Windurra USA out of fellow American-based Australian rider Phillip Dutton's True Prospect Farm.

Boyd was born in Australia where he trained with Heath and Rozzie Ryan. He represented Australia at Young rider level in Trans-Tasman competition. The highlight of his Australian career was winning the last, long-format three-day at Adelaide with True Blue. He was long-listed for the Australian Olympic team in 2000, 2004 and 2008. In 2007 he relocated to the United States to pursue his eventing career and officially first represented the USA in 2009. He worked as assistant to Philip Dutton for two years before setting up his own yard.

In 2011 Boyd suffered a devastating fire at the barn. He lost six horses – his top ride Neville Bardos suffered serious effects of smoke inhalation. Later that year both competed at Burghley – finishing in 7th place – and Neville Bardos was named 2011 'horse of the year' by USEF and The Chronicle of the Horse named Boyd 'overall rider of the year', an accolade he was again awarded in 2014. In 2014 while schooling a horse Silva sustained a serious head injury – despite wearing a helmet – which affected her speech, eyesight and physical capabilities but made a comeback to riding later in the year. In the same month Silva had her accident Boyd broke his leg in a fall.

Boyd is a NCIS Level 1 accredited Coach. He and Silva have two young sons (Nox and Leo)

Tsetserleg TSF owned by Christine Turner, Thomas Turner and Tommie Turner, is a 15-year-old American Trakehner bred by Timothy Holekamp. He is by Windfall 2 out of Thabana, who in turn was sired by Buddenbrock.
