

Michael Owen
GBR

British rider Michael Owen (43), is a professional rider and freelance instructor who is based at Kelsall Hill Equestrian Centre in Cheshire. He last competed at Burghley in 2019 gaining 19th place with this year's ride Bradeley Law.

Michael came to prominence aged 21 when he made his four-star debut at Burghley (2000) with Perks of the Job who he acquired when he was 17 and brought through the levels from a five-year-old. With Perks of the Job he made his Badminton debut aged 23 in 2002. He then acquired the six-year-old King Bob who he rode to four-star level and sold. King Bob was then ridden by Swedish rider Ludwig Svennerstal. Michael is however perhaps best known for his long partnership with The Highland Prince who he competed for 12 seasons and retired in 2017. The pair completed Badminton and Burghley and in 2016 won the CCI3* at Ballindenisk. In February 2010 Michael made his racing debut a winning one, when winning an Amateur riders handicap at Wolverhampton with Albero Di Giuda. Michael enjoys playing golf - he trains with Ruth Edge.

Bradeley Law, owned by Jane Jennings is an 18-year-old SHB(GB) registered British-bred gelding. Bred by his owner he is by the former advanced eventing stallion Mill Law out of Scarlet Lady who is of unverified breeding. He was produced by Mary Lofthouse to intermediate and Michael gained the ride in 2013. The following year the pair was 7th in the three-star at Blair Castle. Having unseated his rider at Badminton in 2016 Bradeley Law jumped three of the fences in the wrong direction on his way back to the stables. He completed the event in 2018 and 2019.
