

Tom Rowland
GBR

British rider Tom Rowland (32) completed Burghley on his debut in 2018 with Possible Mission, his entry this year also. The pair completed Badminton in 2019 and this spring.

After leaving school in Tetbury, Tom spent two years with Angela Tucker followed by work experience with Pippa Funnell and Nigel Taylor. Aged 14 he acquired Hennessey Cormac who he produced through the grades and in 2015 Tom completed his first four-star with the horse at Pau. For six seasons he was based near Cheltenham and in 2017 moved to his existing premises near Cirencester. He is currently campaigning four other horses at 4* level.

Tom is a self-confessed eventing geek. He trains with Dannie Morgan, Dan Greenwood and Roland Fernyhough.

Possible Mission, owned by Robin Patrick, is a 15-year-old Irish Sport Horse gelding. Bred by Richard Barron he is by the Clover Hill son Temple Clover out of Bahrain Supreme by Ricardo Z (sire of Sportsfield Othello, Fenyas Elegance, The Lion). Tom has ridden 'Hunter' since 2012. The pair completed its first four-star at Burghley 2018. Owner Robin Patrick previously owned four-star horses Just an Ace (Robert Lemieux, Mark Todd) and Ivor Mission.
