

Rodolphe Scherer
FRA 50

French rider and instructor Rodolphe Scherer (50), who is based in the West Coast Vendee region of the Pays de la Loire, has competed at Burghley multiple times – most recently in 2016. He has represented France at Olympics, Worlds and European Championships and is one of France's most experienced riders.

He was born in Nantes and followed his father Ivan, a riding teacher (Olympic reserve 1980) and technical delegate into the sport. He first competed internationally as a member of the French junior team for three consecutive years (1987-89) and in 1989 was French junior Champion and the winner of the individual European silver. He also won several team medals in Young Rider championships.

Rodolphe is married to Aude with whom he runs an equestrian centre at Haras de Presnes. The pair has three children.

Song du Magay is a 16-year-old Sele Francais gelding by Summer Song out of Indra who is by the successful eventing sire Hand In Glove. He is owned by Catherine Nauleau.
